Product Description

Slicer, 350mm, Automatic, Extra Heavy Duty, Gear Driven

Product Code

5S516N

Standard Features

- Automatic slicer designed to cut large quantities of food. Suited to large restaurants, supermarkets, delis, butchers and central production kitchens/canteens, where high volume slicing of a variety of meat types is required, and precise control of the automatic slicing feature is necessary
- Extra heavy duty, gear driven machine, designed to effortlessly handle heavy loads like bacon and large pieces of meat that might cause slipping and/or blade stoppage on a belt driven machine
- Two independent motors (one for blade and one for carriage movement)
- Can be used as a fully automatic slicer or switches to manual
- Simple, intuitive touch control panels allow for the selection of multiple slicing options
- Optional slice counter available
- Hollow ground chromed carbon steel blade
- Easy set thickness control allows for precision slicing
- Made from high polished, anodised food grade aluminium for durability and hygiene
- Large base to ensure slicer has capacity to cope with large products
- Ergonomic design with smooth, rounded edges to allow for fast and easy cleaning and improved levels of hygiene
- Fully interlocked and safe guarded for full compliance of CE legislation. This ensures all-round blade protection for the ultimate user safety during cleaning
- Built-in, self-aligning sharpening and de-burring unit
- Table/carriage, blade cover, blade and sharpening unit are detachable for easy, safe cleaning
